Information about Well Child Clinics

What is Well Child Clinic?

Well Child Clinic is health care to help you promote the good health of your children.
It does not provide medical care for your children's illnesses or disabilities.

What health care is available at well Child Clinic?

1. Health education and health counseling including (but not limited to) growth and development, nutrition, minor illnesses, safety, and parenting issues.
2. Physical exam by Nurse Practitioner.
3. Blood test for anemia and urine testing.
4. Immunization as needed.
5. Information about available health resources.
6. Referral assistance for medical financial help.

Other Information

1. Well Child Clinic staff includes a Nurse Practitioner, Public Health Nurses, and community volunteers.
2. All children ages 2 months to 6 years are eligible if family income is not more than 185% of the current poverty level for the household's size. If your family is eligible for the WIC program, you are eligible for Well Child. An income eligibility chart is provided on the reverse of this sheet. Priority is given to infants first and pre-school children second. Families without health insurance are encouraged to apply.
3. There is no fee for Well Child Clinic. Donations are appreciated.
4. Clinics are scheduled as needed at the Ravalli County Public Health Nursing Office in Hamilton. Children are seen in Well Child Clinic by appointment only.
